Due to concerns associated with COVID-19, and the increasing likelihood of the effects of the virus being felt in the area, Monaca Borough Council decided, at the September 14th, 2021 council meeting, to CLOSE its Borough Building to the public effective: SEPTEMBER 15th, until the end of the year. Borough Employees will remain on duty and all functions, services and business hours of the Borough will continue to operate. The public is not permitted to physically go into the Borough Building as the doors will be locked. All water bills, taxes and fines can be paid in the drop box in front of the Borough Building.

Appointments can be made by calling Main office line:
724 775-9600 ext. 202 or 724 775-9604 Water Dept.

The Borough is committed to the safety of its residents and it is with the frame of mind this decision has been made.

Thank You- Stay Safe!

David L. Kramer, Jr. Borough Manager
